

George M. Gross
Chief Financial Officer
Shanghai Disney Resort

George Gross is Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Shanghai Disney Resort. He joined Shanghai Disney Resort in August 2013.

Joining The Walt Disney Company in June of 1993, George has held various leadership positions throughout The Walt Disney Company Parks and Resorts segment. For the year prior to his current role, he was the Chief Financial Officer of Hong Kong Disneyland. Prior to that he was the Controller for Walt Disney Parks and Resorts. The Controllershship is an organization that provides financial and control support, analysis, and reporting for several of the world's top tourist destinations. Among other business units, included in his controllership responsibilities were the Walt Disney World Resort in Orlando, Florida; the Disneyland Resort in Anaheim, California; Disneyland Paris, Hong Kong Disneyland, and Disney Cruise Line.

Prior to joining The Walt Disney Company in 1993, George was an Audit Manager for KPMG Peat Marwick in both Dallas, Texas and Chicago, Illinois, gaining diversified business and accounting experience by performing audits, reviews and special engagements for companies in the insurance, manufacturing, and not-for-profit industries.

George grew up in Kansas City, Missouri, and Chicago, Illinois. He attended Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, as well as The University of Texas at Dallas where he graduated Cum Laude in Accounting. He is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and received his Masters of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Tennessee in 2000.

George and his wife Barbara have been married for over 30 years and have two daughters, Jennifer and Katherine, and one son, Keith. George and Barbara now reside in Shanghai, China.